PREFACE.

It has always been a matter of surprise to me that no book exists to which Riflemen can turn to trace the fortunes of a Regiment whose career has been so long and so distinguished as that of "The 60th, or King's Royal Rifle Corps;" but it may probably be accounted for by the peculiarity of the early history of the Regiment, its numerous battalions, and its singularly varied services.

It is not my object, in the present volume, to attempt a connected history of those services. The scanty and broken materials at my disposal make such an undertaking at present almost an impossibility; it will be enough if I can furnish those interested in the Regiment with a book of reference on most matters of importance in its eventful annals.

I am well aware that my information in many instances is fragmentary, and that I have not even been able always to assign the exact dates to the facts recorded, or to distinguish the separate services of the different battalions; nevertheless, I have thought it best to publish, without any more delay, what I have been able to collect, after careful research during the past five years, from private manuscripts and records, and from public offices and libraries in England and America.

Imperfect as this Regimental Chronicle is in too many respects, I believe that it will be found to contain some information that is new, and many things that have never before been brought together, in a convenient and accessible form.

I sincerely thank all those who have given me assistance, and especially Major-General Rigaud, who throughout has shown the liveliest interest in the work, and who, moreover, has greatly helped me in revising the proofs.

I am much indebted to Major-General Bedford, Captain Boyle (Rifle Brigade), Captain Astley Terry, Major Morrah, the Hon. Walter Pepys, and the Rev. Richard Davy, all of whom have lent me either valuable manuscripts or prints.

Most of the plates are from sketches (taken from old prints) by the Hon. F. Greville and another friend, to both of whom I am greatly obliged.

As there is still very much more to be done in working out the history of the Regiment, I earnestly ask all who are interested in the subject to help me, as far as they can, by furnishing me with any materials they may have collected, or by pointing out to me any fresh source of information, so that I may be able to make as complete as possible the volume which I hope to publish at some future time, containing the Historical Records of the 60th King's Royal Rifles.

THE 18TH CENTURY

SKETCH OF THE HISTORY

OF THE

60TH, OR THE KING'S ROYAL RIFLE CORPS.

THE formation of "The 62nd, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot," now called "The 60th, or King's Royal Rifle Corps," dates from the middle of the last century.

About that time it was thought advisable to augment the Army by eleven battalions, war between England and France seeming imminent, owing to the disregard of the treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, and the frequent encroachments upon British territory in America by the latter power.

In May, 1756, war was declared by Great Britain against France, and, in order to strengthen the British Forces in America, the immediate attention of Parliament was turned towards raising in that country a new Regiment of Foot which was intended to combine the characteristics of a Colonial Corps with those of a Foreign Legion.

During the Parliament of 1755,* the sum of £81,000 was voted for the purpose of raising a Regiment of four battalions, each a thousand strong, for service in British North America.

By the same Parliament an Act was also passed "To enable His Majesty to grant commissions to a certain number of foreign Protestants, who have served abroad as officers or engineers, to act and rank as officers or engineers in America only, under certain restrictions and regulations."

The Earl of Loudoun, who had shortly before been nominated Commander-in-Chief of the Forces in North America, was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment.

About fifty Officers' commissions, or rather less than a third of the whole, were given to Germans and Swiss; and none were allowed to rise above the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

* 29th George II., cap. 5, November, 1755.

The men were chiefly German and Swiss Protestants, who, for some years past, had settled in America on the waste lands which had been assigned to them by the British Government. These men, from their religion, language, and race, were considered in every way suitable opponents to the French.

On enlistment for the requisite term of three years they were obliged to take the oath of allegiance, and to become naturalized subjects; but they were required to serve only in America.

This new Regiment was at first called "The 62nd, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot."

At the disbandment of Shirley's and Pepperel's Regiments in August, 1756, which were numbered the 50th and 51st Regiments, the title was changed to "The 60th, or the Royal American Regiment of Foot."

In 1757, General James Abercromby was appointed Colonel-in-Chief, and, in 1758, was succeeded by General Sir Jeffery Amherst, K.B.

In 1761,* an Act of Parliament was passed referring to Act 13 George II., naturalizing foreign Protestants, and giving further instructions on the subject.

At the conclusion of the seven years' war with France, the Third and Fourth Battalions were disbanded in England in 1763† and 1764.

In 1772,‡ another Act of Parliament, explanatory of the two former, was passed.

In 1775, owing to the outbreak of the Civil War in America, the British Government again decided to increase the Army.

Two more battalions of the 60th, numbered the Third and Fourth, were raised in England and ordered for service in the West Indies.

At the conclusion of the peace in 1783, these battalions were once more disbanded in Nova Scotia, and any of the men who chose were allowed to settle there.§

In 1787 they were again formed in England, almost entirely of foreigners, and sent to the West Indies.

In 1794, rifles were introduced into the English Army, and were first issued to a battalion of "The 60th Royal American Regiment of Foot."

‡ 13th George III., cap. 25, November 26, 1772.

§ Royal Warrant, St. James's, June 9, 1783.

In 1797, H.R.H. the Duke of York was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment.

In the same year* another Act of Parliament was passed for the raising of a Fifth Battalion, in the Isle of Wight; about 400 of "Hompesch's Mounted Riflemen" were incorporated with it, and 500 of "Lowenstein's Chasseurs," a corps raised by a Prince of that name for the Dutch Republic, were also drafted into the battalion on its arrival in the West Indies.

The Colonel of the new battalion was Francis Baron de Rottenburg. About the same time Walstein's Foreign Light Infantry were drafted into the Fourth Battalion.

A clothing warrant of 1800 shows that for some time the Fifth Battalion had been dressed in green. This confirms the statement to that effect contained in the records of the First Battalion.

The Fifth Battalion was armed with rifles and carried leather rifle bags instead of knapsacks.

In 1799,† an Act of Parliament was passed for adding a Sixth and Seventh Battalion.

The Sixth Battalion was formed the same year, in the Isle of Wight, almost entirely of Germans.

The Seventh Battalion was raised in 1813, in the Channel Islands, from German prisoners of war, and consisted of 840 rank and file, 640 of which were called Light Infantry, and the remainder Rifles.

In the same year‡ an Act of Parliament was also passed to augment the Regiment still further by the addition of three more battalions.

The Eighth Battalion was formed at Lisbon in 1813, but the Ninth and Tenth do not appear to have been raised.

After the conclusion of the peace in 1815, six of the battalions were disbanded and drafted as follows:—

May, 1816. Drafts from the Eighth Battalion were sent to the Fifth Battalion at Gibraltar; the remainder were disbanded at Portsmouth.

June, 1817. The Seventh Battalion was disbanded at Halifax,

* 38th George III., cap. 13, December 30, 1797.

† 39th George III., cap. 104, July 12, 1799.

‡ 54th George III., cap. 12, December 6, 1813.

Nova Scotia, and drafted into the Second and Third Battalions, and lands were granted to all discharged men to settle on.

February, 1818. The Sixth Battalion was disbanded at Portsmouth, and the men drafted into the Third Battalion at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

July, 1818. The Fifth Battalion was disbanded at the Isle of Wight, and the men drafted into the Second Battalion at Quebec, which was renamed "The Rifle Battalion," whilst the Third Battalion was called "Light Infantry."

April, 1819. The First and Fourth Battalions were disbanded at Portsmouth, and drafted into the Second Battalion at Quebec; the Second Battalion was again renamed and designated "The First, or the Rifle Battalion;" and the Third, "The Second, or Light Infantry."

Early in 1824 the Regiment was made a "British Corps," and its title changed to "The Duke of York's Own Rifle Corps" and "Light Infantry," and in July of the same year, both battalions were called "Rifle Battalions," and were ordered to be equipped as such.

In October the motto "Celer et Audax," granted to the Regiment for distinguished conduct and bravery under General Wolfe, in 1759, which had for some unaccountable reason fallen into disuse, was resumed by authority.

In 1830, the title was again changed to "The 60th, or the King's Royal Rifle Corps."

In 1855, during the Crimean War, a Third Battalion was once more raised in Dublin.

In 1857 the Indian Mutiny having caused the breaking up of the Native Army in the Bengal Presidency, second battalions were added to many of the Line Regiments, and a Fourth Battalion to "The 60th."

In 1827, H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge was appointed Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment, in succession to H.R.H. the Duke of York.

In 1850, H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge died, and Field Marshal H.R.H. Prince Albert, the late Prince Consort, was appointed Colonel-in-Chief.

In 1852, General Viscount Beresford was gazetted Colonel-in-Chief.

In 1854, General Viscount Gough, &c., &c., became Colonel-in-Chief. At his death, in 1869, Field Marshal H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge, &c., &c., &c., succeeded to the appointment.

ORIGIN OF THE REGIMENTAL MOTTO, "CELER ET AUDAX."

THE motto, "Celer et Audax," was given to the Regiment by General Wolfe for its distinguished bravery at the siege of Quebec, in 1759. It is not, indeed, possible to produce contemporary evidence of this; at least, I have failed to find any; but it will be seen that it was treated as a well-known fact by the Authorities at the Horse Guards. From some cause, which it is not easy to conceive of, this motto was either forgotten or disused, at what period I am unable to say. It was resumed on October 14, 1824, when, as the following letter shows, His Majesty George III. was pleased to authorise its being restored and worn on the Appointments of the Regiment:—

"HORSE GUARDS,

"SIR,

"October 11, 1824.

"I have the honor to acquaint you, by direction of the Commander-in-Chief, that His Majesty has been pleased to permit the 60th Regiment, 'The Duke of York's Own Rifle Corps,' to resume the motto, 'Celer et Audax,' which was formerly worn by the Regiment in commemoration of its distinguished bravery whilst employed with the British Army in North America, under Major-General Wolfe, in the year 1759.

"I have the honor, &c.,

(Signed) "J. McDONALD,

"To the Officer Commanding

"D.A.G.

"1st Battalion, 60th Rifles."

A happier motto for a Rifle Regiment it would be difficult to find, but it is chiefly prized as being so closely connected with the early fortunes of the 60th in North America—a Regiment in whose history occurs the following curious and noteworthy coincidence:—

THE 2ND AND 3RD BATTALIONS OF THE 60TH, AS PART OF THE first ENGLISH GARRISON OF QUEBEC, WERE PRESENT IN SEPTEMBER, 1759, WHEN THE BRITISH ENSIGN WAS HOISTED OVER THE CITADEL BY AN OFFICER OF THE ROYAL ARTILLERY; AND IN NOVEMBER, 1871, ONE HUNDRED AND TWELVE YEARS AFTERWARDS, A DETACHMENT OF THE 1ST BATTALION OF THE 60TH, THE REMNANT OF THE last ENGLISH GARRISON OF QUEBEC, CONSIGNED THE IMPERIAL FLAG TO THE KEEPING OF ANOTHER ARTILLERY OFFICER, WHILST THE FLAG OF THE DOMINION OF CANADA WAS HOISTED IN ITS STEAD.

PROBABLE ORIGIN OF THE MALTESE CROSS.

"A CROSS OF EIGHT POINTS OF THE FORM WORN BY HOSPITALLERS (AS A DECORATION) AND OTHER ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD."—

Chambers's Encyclopædia, Vol. vi., page 287, 1874.

It is difficult to discover the origin of the Maltese Cross as a Regimental Badge, but it probably was first adopted about 1797 when a Fifth Battalion was added to the Regiment composed principally of "Hompesch's Mounted Riflemen." As each battalion successively became a Rifle Battalion it was ordered to be equipped on the model of the Fifth Battalion, and it is therefore natural that they should have adopted the Badge which Hompesch's Battalion had in use at the time of its incorporation with the Fifth Battalion.

This theory is plausibly suggested in "Notes and Queries," July 14, 1870, by the writer, who signs himself H. A. St. J. M., where he says, "I suggest that Hompesch, who was a Bavarian, adopted the badge of the Maltese Cross either from the war medal then given to the Bavarian soldiers, or else because he was a relation of Ferdinand de Hompesch, Knight of Malta, who, in 1797, became grandmaster of the order."

That it was sanctioned as a Regimental Badge is certain, as it was worn by H.R.H. the Duke of York, Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment, upon his own appointments, which were presented on H.R.H.'s death by His Majesty George IV. to the First Battalion, in whose possession they are still preserved.

NOTE.—Great difficulty has been experienced in tracing all the changes of quarters, owing to the numerous moves and detachments of the Regiment during its early service in America and the West Indies.

The following table is, however, believed to be correct.

In many instances where moves have been frequent and for short periods, only the head-quarters and principal stations have been named.

In all cases the stations have been verified by Regimental Records, Army Lists, and other Official Sources.

The Isle of Wight has been entered as the Regimental Depôt for all the Battalions from 1763 to 1824, as I have been unable to trace it to any other place; and as nearly all the Battalions were raised, recruited, and disbanded there, it is but reasonable to suppose that it was the Depôt during that period.

Before 1763 the Depôt was probably at Albany or New York.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT RELATING TO THE REGIMENT.

Anno vicesimo nono
GEORGII II. REGIS.

29 Geo. II., cap. 5.

An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants who have served Abroad as Officers, or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers, or Engineers, in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants, and others therein mentioned, as are settled, or shall settle, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America; all Persons born out of the Allegiance of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who have inhabited and resided, or shall inhabit and reside, for the Space of Seven Years, or more, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, or shall not have been absent out of some of the said Colonies for a longer Space than Two Months, at any One Time during the said Seven Years, are upon the Conditions prescribed by the said Act, naturalized and made Partakers of all the Benefits and Privileges which the natural-born Subjects of this Realm do enjoy, other than such as are specified in a Proviso in the said Act contained: And whereas many Foreigners, being Protestants, have been induced by the Encouragement offered to them by the said Act, to reside and settle in some of the said Colonies (and particularly in the Provinces of Maryland and Pennsylvania) the natural-born Subjects of which last-mentioned Province do in great Part consist of the People called Quakers, whose Backwardness in their own Defence exposes themselves, and that Part of America, to imminent Danger: And whereas, for the better Defence of the said Colonies, it hath been proposed to raise a Regiment there, consisting of Four Battalions of One thousand Men each, and to enlist as Soldiers in the said Regiment any of the said Foreign Inhabitants of the said Colonies, who, together with the Natives, shall voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Service as Soldiers; which Foreigners cannot so well be raised or trained, without the Assistance of some Officers who are acquainted with their Manners and Language: And whereas it is expedient in the present Juncture of Affairs, to facilitate the speedy raising of such Regiment, and to enable a certain Number of Foreign Protestants who have served Abroad as Officers, or Engineers, and thereby acquired experience and knowledge, to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment, or as Engineers in America; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Foreign Protestants who shall receive Commissions from His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, to be Officers in the said Regiment, or to be Engineers in America (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to grant) and shall, in some of His Majesty's Colonies in America, take and subscribe the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe the Declaration, appointed by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the Pretended Prince of Wales, his open and secret Abettors; and shall at the Time of the taking and subscribing of the said Oaths, and making, repeating, and subscribing the said Declaration, produce Certificates signed in Manner directed by the said Act of the Thirteenth Year of His present Majesty, of their having received the Sacrament in some Protestant and reformed Congregation within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within some of the said Colonies in America, within Six Months before that Time, shall and may be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment, or as Engineers, in America.

Provided, nevertheless, That the Number of such Officers in the said Regiment shall not in the whole, at any Time, exceed Fifty; nor the Number of Engineers in the whole, at any time, exceed Twenty.

Provided also, That the Colonel of the said Regiment shall be a natural-born Subject, and not any Person naturalized or made Denizen.

Provided also, That no such foreign Officer shall be enabled by this Act to serve as an Officer or Engineer in any Place, except America only; but every such foreign Officer, when he shall be reduced, shall be capable of receiving Half-pay, according to the Rank in which he shall then serve.

Anno secundo

GEORGII III. REGIS.

2nd Geo. III. cap. 25.

An Act for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants as have served, or shall serve for the Time therein mentioned, as Officers or Soldiers in His Majesty's Royal American Regiment, or as Engineers in America.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants, and others therein mentioned, as are settled, or shall settle, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America; all Persons born out of the Allegiance of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who shall have inhabited and resided, or shall inhabit or reside, for the Space of Seven Years, or more, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, or shall not have been absent out of the said Colonies for a longer space than Two Months at any One Time during the said Seven Years, are, upon the Conditions prescribed by the said Act, Naturalized and made Partakers of all the Benefits and Privileges which the natural-born Subjects of this Realm do enjoy, other than such as are specified in a Proviso in the said Act contained: And whereas Commissions have been granted to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants in America, in pursuance of a Power given by a subsequent Act of the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants, who have served abroad as Officers or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers or Engineers in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications; which said Officers have been very useful to His Majesty's Service, by the Raising of a great Number of Men, and Training them to Discipline as Soldiers: and whereas several of the said Officers, since the passing of the above recited Acts, have purchased Estates in America, by which, as well as by their faithful Services, they have given the strongest Assurances of their Attachment and Fidelity to His Majesty's Government: And whereas it is just to reward the past Services of the said Officers and Soldiers, and to give Encouragement for their future good Conduct; and it is likewise expedient to add Inducements to such Foreign Protestants as have settled, or may hereafter settle, in America, to engage in His Majesty's Service: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Foreign Protestants, as well Officers as Soldiers, who have served, or shall hereafter serve, in the Royal American Regiment, or as Engineers in America, for the Space of Two Years, and shall take and subscribe the Oaths, and make, and repeat, and subscribe the Declaration appointed by an Act made in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the First, intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princess Sophia, being Protestants; and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, his open and secret Abettors; and shall, at the Time of subscribing the said Oaths, and making, repeating, and subscribing the said Declaration, produce Certificates, signed in Manner directed by the above recited Act of the Thirteenth of His late Majesty, of their having received the Sacrament in some Protestant and Reformed Congregation within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or within some of the said Colonies in America, within Six Months before that Time, shall be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be, His Majesty's natural-born Subjects of this Kingdom, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes, as if they, and every of them, had been or were born within this Kingdom; and that no Estates, of what Nature or Kind soever, purchased by them, or any of them, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, since the passing of the above recited Act of the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His said late Majesty, shall be liable to Seizure into the Hands of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or their Titles thereto be otherwise impeached by Reason of their having been Aliens at the Time of their making the said Purchases ; the above recited Acts, or any other Statute, Law, or Thing whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to naturalize any Person or Persons whatsoever, who, by virtue of an Act made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the First (intituled, An Act to explain a Clause in an Act made in the Seventh Year of the Reign of Her late Majesty Queen Anne, for Naturalizing Foreign Protestants, which relates to the Children of natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain) are declared and enacted not to be entitled to the Benefit of the said Act of the Seventh Year of Her said Majesty's Reign ; but that all such Persons shall be and remain in the same State, Plight, and Condition, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes whatsoever, as they would have been in if this Act had never been made ; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall become a natural-born Subject of this Kingdom by virtue of this Act, shall be thereby enabled to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either House of Parliament, or to be capable of taking, having, or enjoying any Office or Place of Trust within the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, either Civil or Military ; or of having, accepting, or taking any Grant from the Crown to himself, or to any other in Trust for him, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdoms aforesaid ; anything herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Anno decimo Tertio
GEORGII III. REGIS.

13th Geo. III. cap. 25.

An Act to explain Two Acts of Parliament, One of the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants, and others, as are settled, or shall settle, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America ; and the other of the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for Naturalizing such Foreign Protestants as have served, or shall serve, as Officers or Soldiers in His Majesty's Royal American Regiment, or as Engineers, in America.

WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second (intituled, An Act for naturalizing such Foreign Protestants, and others therein mentioned, as are settled, or shall settle, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America), all Persons born out of the Allegiance of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, who shall have inhabited and resided, or shall inhabit or reside, for the Space of Seven Years or more, in any of His Majesty's Colonies in America, or shall not have been absent out of the said Colonies for a longer Space than Two Months at any one time during the said Seven Years, are, upon the Conditions prescribed by the said Act, naturalized and made Partakers of all the Benefits and Privileges which the natural-born Subjects of this Realm do enjoy, other than such as are specified in a Proviso in the said Act contained: And whereas by an Act, made in the Second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty (intituled, An Act for naturalizing such Foreign Protestants as have served, or shall serve, for the Time therein mentioned, as Officers or Soldiers in His Majesty's Royal American Regiment, or as Engineers in America), it is enacted, That all such Foreign Protestants, as well Officers as Soldiers, who have served, or shall hereafter serve, in the Royal American Regiment, or as Engineers in America, for the Space of Two Years, shall, upon the Terms required by the said recited Act, be deemed, adjudged, and taken to be His Majesty's natural-born Subjects of this Kingdom, to all Intents, Constructions, and Purposes as if they and every of them had been, or were, born within this Kingdom; and in both which Acts respectively are contained Provisoos, That no Person, who shall become a natural-born Subject of this Kingdom by virtue of the said Acts, shall be thereby enabled to be of the Privy Council, or a Member of either House of Parliament, or to be capable of taking, having or enjoying any Office or Place of Trust within the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, either Civil or Military, or of having, accepting or taking any Grant from the Crown, to himself or to any other in Trust for him, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, within the Kingdoms aforesaid; and whereas Doubts may nevertheless arise, whether such Persons as have been, or may be naturalized under or by virtue of the said recited Acts, are capable of taking, having, or enjoying any Office or Place of Trust, either Civil or Military, or of taking any Grant of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, from the Crown whatsoever: Be it enacted and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons that have become, or shall become His Majesty's natural-born Subjects, by Force or Virtue of the said Acts, or either of them, are and shall be deemed to be capable of taking and holding any Office or Place of Trust, either Civil or Military, and of taking and holding any Grant of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, from the Crown, to himself or themselves, or to any other or others in Trust for him or them, as well under the Great Seal of Great Britain, as otherwise, other than and except Offices and Places, and Grants of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, within the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland; any Law or Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Anno tricesimo octavo
GEORGII III. REGIS.

38th Geo. III. cap. 13.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the Twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants, who have served Abroad as Officers or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers or Engineers in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications.

[30th December, 1797.]

WHEREAS it is judged expedient for the better Defence of His Majesty's Colonies in America, to augment His Majesty's Sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, now consisting of Four Battalions of One Thousand Men each, by the Addition of a Fifth Battalion, to consist in like Manner of One Thousand Men, and to enlist as Soldiers, to serve in the said Fifth Battalion in America, any of the Foreign Troops now in His Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein: And whereas such Foreigners cannot so well be disciplined without the Assistance of some Officers who are acquainted with their Manners and Language : And whereas it is expedient, in the present Juncture of Affairs, to facilitate the speedy raising of such Fifth Battalion, and to enable a certain Number of Foreign Officers to serve and receive Pay as Officers in such Fifth Battalion : Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to augment the said Sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, by the Addition of a Fifth Battalion, to consist of One thousand Men, and to enlist as Soldiers, to serve in such Battalion, any of the Foreign Troops now in His Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein in America.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Foreign Officers who shall receive Commissions from His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to be Officers of such Fifth Battalion in America (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, to grant), shall and may be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment.

III. And whereas by an Act, passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants, who have served Abroad as Officers or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers or Engineers in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Number of Officers in the said Regiment shall not, in the Whole, at any Time, exceed Fifty, nor the Number of Engineers, in the Whole, at any Time exceed Twenty : Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Clause in the above-mentioned Act shall, from and after the Passing of this present Act, be, and it is hereby declared to be and stand totally repealed to all Intents and Purposes.

IV. Provided also, That no such Foreign Officer shall be enabled by this Act to serve as an Officer in any Place except America only ; but every such Foreign Officer, when he shall be reduced, shall be capable of receiving Half-pay according to the Rank in which he shall then serve.

LIST OF OFFICERS FROM 1756-1878.

The accompanying Lists have been taken from the Annual and Quarterly Army Lists published since the formation of the Regiment, and do not, therefore, necessarily include the names of all Officers who may have been gazetted to the Regiment, whose length of service in it may have been extremely short.

Great care has been taken to copy these Lists correctly, but in such a mass of names and dates some errors are almost unavoidable.

STATEMENT OF OFFICERS' SERVICES.

For all Officers' Services the date of the List in which the Officer's name appears for the last time is shown.

COLONELS-IN-CHIEF.

1757.

The Right Honourable JOHN CAMPBELL, Earl of LOUDOUN, Lord MACHLIN, one of the 16 Peers of Scotland, a General in the Army, Governor of Edinburgh Castle, Colonel of the 3rd Regiment of Foot Guards, and F.R.S. Succeeded his father in 1732, and in 1745 was appointed Colonel of a new-raised Highland regiment, with which, in that and the following year, he took an active part in the Highlands against the rebels. In 1749 he was appointed Colonel of a regiment of foot. In 1756, being then Major-General, he was appointed Governor of Virginia, and Commander-in-Chief in North America. He arrived at New York on July 23. Lord Loudoun was superseded in his command in 1758, and appointed a Lieutenant-General.

1797.

The Right Honourable JEFFERY, Lord AMHERST, of Holmesdale, K.B., Privy Counsellor to His Majesty, Governor of Guernsey, a Field-Marshal in the Army, Colonel of the 2nd Regiment of Life Guards, and of the 60th (or Royal American) Regiment of Foot; received his first commission in 1731; was Aide-de-Camp to General Ligonier at the battles of Dettingen, Fontenoy, and Recoux; was afterwards made Aide-de-Camp to the Duke of Cumberland, and, as such, was at the battles of Lasseldt and Hastenbeck; and continued with His Royal Highness till 1756, when he was appointed Colonel of the 15th Regiment of Foot. In 1758 he received orders to return to England, being appointed for the American service, and sailed from Portsmouth on March 16, as Major-General commanding the troops for the siege of Louisbourg. On the 30th of September, in the same year, he was appointed Commander-in-Chief of all the forces in America, in the room of General Abercrombie, and at the same time was appointed Colonel of the 60th Regiment. He was also made Governor of Virginia. He continued in the command in America to the latter end of 1763, when he returned to England. In November, 1768, he was reappointed Colonel of the 60th Regiment, and made chief officer of the Staff. In 1771 he was appointed Governor of Guernsey, and next year Lieutenant-General of Ordnance. In the years 1778, 1782, 1793, he held the post of Commander-in-Chief of the Army. In 1787, he was created Baron Amherst of Montreal, a title conferred in honour of the capture of Montreal.

1827.

H.R.H. FREDERICK, Duke of YORK, was born August 16, 1763. In 1780 he was appointed a Brevet Colonel in the British Army. In 1784 he was created Duke of York and Albany in Great Britain, and Earl of Ulster in Ireland, Bishop of Osnaburg, Knight of the Garter, First and Principal Knight Grand Cross of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Guelphic Order, Knight of St. Esprit, a Field Marshal, Commander-in-Chief of all the King's land forces in the United Kingdom, Colonel in the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, Colonel-in-Chief of the 60th or Royal American Regiment of Foot, and of the Royal Dublin Regiment of Infantry. In 1793 he was placed at the head of the British Army in Flanders, and after alternate successes was expelled from that country by the French. In 1799 he was employed in Holland, and was obliged to sign a disadvantageous convention. In 1809 he resigned the post of Commander-in-Chief. About two years afterwards he was reinstated in that office. He died on 3rd January, 1827, in his 64th year, having, with the exception of a short period in 1811-1812, been at the head of the British Army since 1795.

1854.

Lord Viscount BRERFORD, G.C.B., G.C.H., received the Gold Cross and seven Clasps for Corunna, Busaco, Albuera, Badajoz, Salamanca (severely wounded), Vittoria, Pyrenees, Nivelles, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse; and the Silver War Medal with one Clasp for Ciudad Rodrigo.

1869.

Lord Viscount GOUCH, G.C.B., K.P., G.C.S.I., served at the capture of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Dutch fleet in Saldanha Bay, 1795. Served afterwards in the West Indies, including the attack on Porto Rico, the brigand war in St. Lucia, and capture of Surinam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1809, and commanded the 87th at the battles of Talavera, Barrosa, Vittoria, and Nivelles, for which engagements he received a Gold Cross. He also commanded the regiment at the defence of Cadiz and of Tarifa (slightly wounded in the head). At the battle of Talavera his horse was shot under him, and he himself afterwards was severely wounded in the side by a shell; for his conduct in this action the Duke of Wellington subsequently recommended that his Lieutenant-Colonelcy should be ante-dated to the date of his despatch, thus making him the first officer who ever received Brevet rank for services performed in the field at the head of a regiment. At Barrosa his regiment captured the Eagle of the 8th French Regiment; and at Vittoria they captured the Baton of Marshal Jourdan. At the Nivelles he was again severely wounded. Commanded the land force at Canton, for which he was made a G.C.B., and during nearly the whole of the operations in China, for which service he was created a Baronet. On the 29th December, 1843, with the right wing of the army of Gwalior, he defeated a Mahratta force at Maharajpore, and captured 56 guns, &c. In 1845-46, the army under his Lordship's personal command defeated the Sikh army at Moodkee, Ferozeshah, and Sohraon, for which and previous services he was raised to the Peerage; and, in 1849, he was created a Viscount after his crowning victory over the Sikhs at Goojerat (Medal and Clasps). His Lordship was also a Knight of Charles III. of Spain.

H.R.H. GEORGE W. F. C. Duke of CAMBRIDGE, K.G., K.P., G.C.B., G.C.M.G., commanded the 1st Division of the Eastern Army throughout the campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma, Balaklava, and Inkermann (horse killed), and siege of Sebastopol (Medal with four Clasps, and Turkish Medal). Field Marshal, 9th November, 1862; Commander-in-Chief, 15th July, 1866.

COLONELS-COMMANDANT.

Colonel-Commandant W. EPPPEL, Lieut.-General, October 6, 1805. Served in North America and West Indies. Was one of the Equeires to H.R.H. Prince Regent.

1812.

Lieutenant-General Sir G. PREVOST, Bart., 3rd Battalion, Colonel at Antigua, Lieutenant-Colonel, 1794.

1795. Went to Demerara and St. Vincent; there attacked by the French; was employed there in suppressing a Carib insurrection and French invasion, and commanded a column at the reduction of the Vigie, ordered to Jamaica to command troops.

1796. Resumed command of 3rd Battalion at St. Vincent's; twice badly wounded in attacks to resist enemy's progress towards the capital; after General Stewart's defeat at Colony returned to England in 1809. Commander-in-Chief in America; General, 1st January, 1805.

Lieutenant-General Sir HENRY CLINTON, G.C.B.

This officer served in Holland as A.D.C. to the Duke of York in 1793-94. Afterwards commanded the 66th Regiment in the West Indies. Served as Adjutant-General in India 1803-5, and was present at the battle of Laswarree. Served as Adjutant-General to the expedition to Portugal under Sir John Moore, including Vimiera and Corunna. Appointed to the command of the 6th Division of Lord Wellington's army in 1811 (Colonel-Commandant, 1st Battalion, 60th Regiment, 20th May, 1813), and was present at Salamanca, Burgos, Pamplona, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, Toulouse, and other actions, for which he received the thanks of Parliament. On the 4th June, 1814, he was promoted Lieutenant-General. The same year he was appointed Inspector-General of Infantry, and subsequently second in command of the Belgian Army. He commanded a Division at the battle of Waterloo, and for his conduct on that occasion was appointed Knight of the Austrian Order of Maria Theresa, Knight of the 3rd Class of the Russian Order of St. George, and Knight of the 3rd Class of the Wilhelm's Order by the King of the Low Countries. He afterwards commanded a Division of the British Contingent in France. On 9th August, 1815, he was removed from the 6th Battalion 60th Regiment to the Colonelcy of the 3rd Foot. Sir H. Clinton received the Gold Cross and Clasp for the battles of Salamanca, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, Toulouse, at each of which he commanded a Division. Sir H. Clinton three times received the thanks of Parliament; first, on 10th February, 1814, for his services at Salamanca; secondly, for his services at the battle of Orthes; and, thirdly, for Waterloo.

Sir W. PAT. ACKLAND, K.C.B. (Lieutenant-General).

Cross and three Clasps for Badajos, Vittoria, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, Toulouse; Medal and Clasp for Maida and Vimiera.

General Sir GEORGE MURRAY, G.C.B.

This officer, having served in the 3rd Guards the campaign of 1793 in Flanders, in Egypt, and throughout the Peninsular War (Quartermaster-General, 1809), was appointed Colonel of the 7th Battalion 60th Rifles, and subsequently Lieutenant-Governor of Edinburgh Castle. He was a Knight Grand Cross of the Bath, and of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Knight Commander of the Tower and Sword of Portugal, and Knight of the Order of Leopold of Austria. He also received the Gold Cross and six Clasps for the Peninsular War.

General Sir JAMES KEMPT, G.C.B., &c.

Served the campaigns in Holland, 1799, and in Egypt. Commanded the Light Brigade at the battle of Maida, and having been present throughout the whole of the Peninsular War, was appointed a Colonel-Commandant in the 60th Regiment in 1813. Commanded a Brigade at Waterloo (severely wounded), was a Knight Grand Cross of the Bath and Hanoverian Guelphic Order, a Knight of the Austrian Order of Maria Theresa, of the 3rd Class of St. George of Russia, and of the 3rd Class of Wilhelm, of the Low Countries. He also received the Gold Cross and three Clasp for his services. He was successively Lieutenant-Governor of Fort William, Lieutenant-Governor of Portsmouth, and Governor of Nova Scotia.

1842.

Sir JOHN MACLEAN accompanied his Regiment (the 92nd) to Holland, in 1799, and was present at the battle of the 27th August, the taking of the Helder, and the actions of the 10th and 19th September, and 2nd October, near Alkmaar, where he was severely wounded in two places. Accompanied the expedition to Egypt in 1801, and was present at the landing at Aboukir Bay, 8th March; at the battle of Alexandria, 21st March; and at every action which took place in Egypt during the campaign. Served in the expedition to Hanover, 1805-6; also in the expedition to Sweden, 1808. Embarked for the Peninsula in 1806; was present at the battle of Busaco; the action near Redinha; siege of Olivenza; siege of Badajos, where he was severely wounded; the action near Canizal, where his battalion and the 40th Regiment attacked a column of the enemy double their number, and put them to flight; the battles of Salamanca, Vittoria, the Pyrenees, near Pamplona (wounded), Nivelle, Bayonne, Orthes, and Toulouse, where he was severely wounded, it being the fifth wound he received in the service of his country. Sir John received a Medal and two Clasps. Colonel-Commandant 60th, January 7, 1835.

1854.

Sir WILLIAM EUSTACE was at the battles of Ross and Vinegar Hill, and at Wexford, and all through the Irish Rebellion in 1798. Went to Naples with Sir James Craig; from thence to Sicily and Calabria, and was present at the action on landing in St. Eufemia Bay, the battle of Maida, and siege of Seylla. He was on board the Loire frigate when she captured the Ganymede. Commanded the Chasseurs Britanniques, at the battle of Fuentes d'Onor, the siege of San Christoval, battle of Salamanca, capture of Madrid, defence of Oimos in front of Burgos, various engagements on the retreat from thence, actions in the Pyrenees (severely wounded 31st August), and various other affairs, in one of which he was wounded, and in another he had a horse killed under him. Sir William received a Gold Medal and one Clasp for Fuentes d'Onor and Salamanca, and the Silver War Medal and two Clasps for Madrid and the Pyrenees.

1856.

Colonel GABRIEL WILLIAM DAVY, C.B., K.C.H., Commanded the 5th Battalion 60th, in Spain and Portugal, and was present at the battles of Roleia, Vimiera, and Talavera, for which he received the Medal.

1857.

Lieutenant-General BUNBURY served with the storming party at Fort Frederick, and at the capture of Surinam in 1804; served in the campaign of 1814 in Holland, including the attacks on Merxem, and the bombardment of the French fleet at Antwerp. Served also in the American War.

1862.

Sir WILLIAM GEORGE MOORE, K.C.B., served in the Peninsula with the 52nd, and was present at the sieges of Ciudad Rodrigo, Badajoz, and St. Sebastian, at the battles of Salamanca, Vittoria, Nivelle, and Nive, for which he received the War Medal with seven Clasps. He was also at the repulse of the sortie from Bayonne, as Aide-de-Camp to Sir John Hope, and was severely wounded and taken prisoner with that general. He served also in the Waterloo campaign on the staff of the Quartermaster-General.

1863.

Lieutenant-General PATTERSON served with a corps of cavalry as a Volunteer in the Rebellion in Ireland in 1798. He served in the Egyptian campaign of 1801 in the 26th Regiment, and was present in the actions of the 8th, 13th, and 21st March, as also at the capture of Grand Cairo and Alexandria. In 1805 he accompanied Lord Cathcart's expedition to the Continent. He served in the 77th in the Peninsula and south of France during the campaigns of 1811-14, including the affair at El Bodon, siege and capture of Ciudad Rodrigo and of Badajoz, investment of Bayonne and repulse of the sortie, besides various skirmishes. When the rebellion broke out in Canada, in 1837, he volunteered his services, which were accepted. Served five years in the West Indies. He received the Gold Medal from the Grand Seigneur for the Egyptian campaign, and the Silver War Medal with three Clasps for Egypt, Ciudad Rodrigo, and Badajoz.

Major-General Hon. GEORGE UPTON served in the 1st Battalion Coldstream Guards throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma, Balaclava, and Inkerman (wounded and horse killed), and siege of Sebastopol (Medal and Clasps, C.B., Officer of the Legion of Honour, 3rd Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

Lord TEMPLETOWN served throughout the Eastern campaign of 1854, and until March, 1855, in command of the 1st Battalion of Coldstream Guards; present at the battle of the Alma (mentioned in despatches); battle of Inkerman in command of the Brigade of Guards, which he brought out of action (wounded and horse killed); subsequently in command of the 1st Division; also present at the siege of Sebastopol (Medal with Clasps, C.B., Officer of the Legion of Honour, 3rd Class of the Medjidie, and Turkish Medal).

Lord MELVILLE commanded the 33rd during the suppression of the insurrection in Lower Canada in 1837, and also in repelling the attacks of the American brigands who landed near Prescott, Upper Canada, in 1838. Commanded the Bombay column of the Army throughout the Punjab campaign of 1848-49, including the siege and storm of the town and capture of the citadel of Multan, battle of Goojerat, and subsequent operations (Medal with Clasp and K.C.B.).

Sir ARTHUR CUNYNGHAME proceeded to China in 1841 as Aide-de-Camp to Lord Saltoun, and was present at the storm and capture of Chin-Kiang-Foo (led the column of attack on the heights of Makniow) and at the investment of Nankin (Medal). In 1854 accompanied the army to the east as Assistant-Quartermaster-General to the 1st Division; was present at the affair of Bulganac, battle of Alma, taking of Balaklava, affair of 23rd October on the Tchernaya, battle of Balaklava and Inkerman (served with the Guards in the Sandbag Battery and led into action a detached portion of the 20th Regiment), and siege of Sebastopol up to May, 1855 (Medal with four Clasps, C.B., Officer of the Legion of Honour, Turkish Medal, and 4th class of the Medjidie). In March, 1855, was appointed local Major-General; in May took command of a Division of the Turkish Contingent, and in August received the personal thanks of the Sultan, and was created a Lieutenant-General in the Turkish army. In October, 1855, sailed in command of 10,000 men to Kertch, and assisted to maintain that position throughout the second winter in the Crimea (Turkish War Medal and 2nd class Medjidie). In 1863 commanded at Lahore the reserve forces of the army employed in the Sittana campaign. On the 2nd and 23rd April, 1869, when in command of the Northern Division of Ireland, received the thanks of the Irish Government on the suppression of the Fenian rising. Elevated to G.C.B. Organised the military occupation of the Transvaal on its annexation in 1877. Commanded the combined forces on the Neer River in the war with the Galikas, and the rebellion of the Gaikkas in Kaffraria.

LIEUT.-COLONELS COMMANDING.

Major-General STRUTT, Governor of Quebec; Major 60th Regiment, 1783; General, 9th September, 1795.

1803.

Lieut.-Colonel Sir JOHN CAMPBELL, Knight, served with the Portuguese Army during the campaign in Portugal and Spain, and received the Order of the Tower and Sword of Portugal.

1804.

Lieutenant-General Sir FITZROY JEFFRIES MACLEAN, Bart.

Exchanged as Lieutenant from 20th Regiment to 4th Battalion 60th, 1788, and went to the West Indies, where he was actively employed for nearly six years, and was present at the capture of Tobago, the expedition against Martinique, at St. Vincent, &c. The 25th September, 1793, he was promoted to a company in the 60th, and on 8th September, 1794, to a Majority in the 110th Regiment. He afterwards exchanged to the 79th, from which he was promoted into the 82nd, and removed to the command of the 2nd Battalion 60th, 5th February, 1801, which Regiment he again left for the 37th. Colonel, 25th September, 1803; Major-General, 25th July, 1810; Lieutenant-General, 4th June, 1864. He received Medal for capture of Guadaloupe, and a Baronetcy for his services.

Major-General ROBERT LETHBRIDGE.

Entered the 4th Battalion 60th, at the age of 16, and joined his Regiment at St. Augustine, in East Florida, and in November, 1778, he marched with the expedition into Georgia, under command of Major-General Augustine Prevost, and was present at the siege of Sunbury, when that place with its fort surrendered. He was promoted as Lieutenant into another Battalion which he joined at Jamaica, in August, 1780, and was for three weeks embarked with the Regiment in October, in Port Royal Harbour, for the Spanish Main, but owing to the mortality among the troops already on that service, the expedition did not take place. In 1786 his Battalion was removed to Nova Scotia, and thence to Quebec. He was promoted Captain in the newly raised 4th Battalion in England, and joining at Chatham, raised his company principally at his own expense, according to the conditions under which he had been appointed. On this Battalion embarking for Barbadoes, he exchanged back into the 1st Battalion in Canada, which he joined in November, at Niagara. In 1790 the Battalion moved to Montreal. In November of that year he was appointed A.D.C. to Lord Amherst, then Commander-in-Chief of His Majesty's Forces, which appointment he held till February, 1795, when he was nominated A.D.C. to the Marquis Townshend, and continued as such till his promotion to a Majority in the 3rd Battalion, in December, 1795. The year following he joined his Regiment, then on service in St. Vincent's, and was sent to command a post in the Carib Country. On the termination of hostilities by the surrender of the Vigie and the capture of the black General Marina, he proceeded to England and exchanged into the 2nd Battalion, which he joined at Montreal in November, 1798. In the following year the Battalion was ordered to be drafted, and the officers and non-commissioned officers to be sent to Barbadoes. In February, 1802, Major Lethbridge was promoted to the command of the 4th Battalion, serving in Jamaica; and in October, 1804, he was appointed Inspecting Field Officer, first of a recruiting district at Enniskillen, then at Shrewsbury, and in 1812, of Militia in Canada, where he served in that and the following year in the campaign against the United States until his promotion to the rank of Major-General.

Major-General GABRIEL GORDON.

Ensign, 60th Foot, 6 January, 1781; Lieutenant, 26th November, 1784; Captain, 10th July, 1794; Major, 16 May, 1800. After completing 20 years' service with the Regiment in the West Indies and Canada, Major Gordon obtained leave to come to England, and in 1803 returned to Jamaica. The 9th March, 1802, he received his Lieutenant-Colonelcy, and soon after his return to the West Indies was appointed to command and superintend the British settlement at the Bay of Honduras, and subsequently Deputy Quartermaster-General on that station. He was present at the capture of Martinique and Guadeloupe, for which he received a Medal and Clasp. He was placed on half-pay 4th January, 1808.

Major-General LEWIS MOSHEIM.

This officer's first military commission was that of Lieutenant in the Würtemberg Regiment of Foot Guards, in 1789. In 1794 he left the Würtemberg service and obtained a Captain's commission in a Regiment of Riflemen raised by the Prince of Lowenstein Wertheim for the Dutch service, stationed at Maestricht, Vaets, and, lastly, at the fortress of Grave, during the siege of which place, in October, November, and December, 1794, he was entrusted with the command of all the light troops in garrison. He was taken prisoner with the garrison of Grave, and detained at the depôts of Lille, Amiens, Rouen, and Bernay, until released in June, 1795.

He rejoined the Prince of Lowenstein's Regiment, which, having entered His Britannic Majesty's service at the evacuation of Holland, was stationed at Winsen, near Harburg, to embark for England. In 1795 he proceeded with the Regiment to the West Indies in the expedition under the late Sir Ralph Abercromby. He served at the reduction of the Island of St. Lucia, St. Vincent, and during the expedition against Porto Rico in 1796 and 1797. He was appointed to do the duties of Major by Sir Ralph Abercromby, and the Regiment of Lowenstein Chasseurs having been formed into the 5th Battalion of the 60th Regiment on the 25th of December, 1797, he joined that Battalion as Major, his commission being dated 30th of December, 1797. He was next ordered from Barbadoes to take the command of a detachment of the 5th Battalion of the 60th Regiment, in the Island of Trinidad, where he remained under the command of the late Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Picton, until ordered to join the 6th Battalion of the 60th Regiment in England. He sailed from Trinidad for England in November, 1799, in a running ship, which was captured by a French privateer and carried into Bordeaux, where he was detained a prisoner until permitted to return to England on parole. He was exchanged on the 7th of April, 1800, and joined the 6th Battalion of the 60th Regiment in the Isle of Wight, from whence he sailed with the Battalion for the Island of Jamaica in December, 1800. The command of the 6th Battalion of the 60th Regiment having devolved upon him, he was entrusted with the same nearly five years, from 1801 to the 25th of July, 1805, when he obtained leave of absence to return to England for the benefit of his health. He was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel, by brevet, the 29th of April, 1809; and Lieutenant-Colonel in the 60th Foot, the 14th of September, 1804.

General FRANCIS BARON DE ROTTENBURG.

This officer was appointed Major in Hompesch's Hussars, 25th December, 1795, and Lieutenant-Colonel, 25th June, 1796, from which he was removed to a Lieutenant-Colonelcy in the 60th Foot, 30th December, 1797. The 1st January, 1805, he received the rank of Colonel; 25th July, 1810, that of Major-General; and 2nd September, 1813, the Colonelcy of De Roll's Regiment; and 12th August, 1819, the rank of Lieutenant-General. He served during the rebellion in Ireland, in 1798, in which year he formed the 5th Battalion of the 60th Regiment into a Rifle Corps, and submitted to H.R.H. the Commander-in-Chief the rules and regulations for the exercise of Riflemen and Light Infantry, and their conduct in the field; which having been graciously approved of, was published by authority, and made general for the Army. He was at the taking of Surinam, 21st August, 1799. In May, 1808, he was appointed Brigadier-General, and commanded the exercise and instruction of four Battalions of Light Infantry at the Camp of Instruction, on the Curragh of Kildare, under Sir David Baird. In the same year he was transferred from the Irish to the English staff, and stationed at Ashford, in Kent, and charged with the formation and instruction of three Battalions of Light Infantry, viz., the 68th, 85th, and 71st Regiments, assembled at Brabourne Lees Barracks. In 1809 he commanded the light troops at the attack on the island of Walcheren, and the siege of Flushing. In December of the same year he was at the evacuation of the island of Walcheren; returned with the troops to England, and was replaced on the staff in Kent. In May, 1810, he was transferred to the staff in Canada, and took the command of the garrison in Quebec on the 1st September of that year. In 1812, at the breaking out of the American war, he was appointed to the command of the Montreal district, and in 1813 took the command of the troops in the Upper Province, and was sworn in President of Upper Canada. In 1814 and 1815 he commanded the left division of the Army in Canada, and returned to England in September of the latter year.

Baron Rottenburg was a Knight Commander of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order.

Major-General Sir JOHN KEANE, K.C.B.

Major 60th, 27th May, 1802, and again joined the Regiment from the 13th Foot as Lieutenant-Colonel, 25th June, 1812; 4th June, 1814, promoted Major-General, and in August appointed Colonel on the Staff of the Army in Spain and Portugal, and was present at Vittoria, Pyrenees, Nivelle, Nive, and Toulouse, for which events, as well as for the capture of Martinique in 1809, he received the Cross and two Clasps and was also made a Knight Commander of the Bath. Sir John Keane also served in America, and was wounded in the unfortunate expedition against New Orleans, on recovering from which he joined the Army under Major-General Sir John Lambert on the coast of Louisiana.

Lieutenant-Colonel WM. WOODGATE, C.B.

Served in Spain and Portugal, and received the Medal for the battle of Fuentes d'Onor.

1817.

Major-General PAUL ANDERSON, C.B.

Removed as Lieutenant-Colonel from Nova Scotia Fencibles to 60th. Served as Deputy-Adjutant-General in the Peninsula under Sir John Moore, and afterwards, as Commandant at head-quarters, in which situation he remained till after the battle of Corunna, for which he received the Medal. Served as Assistant-Adjutant-General to General Graham's Division in the expedition to Walcheren, and was present at the siege of Flushing.

1825.

Major-General EDWARD CODD.

This officer entered the Army the 10th of December, 1789, as an Ensign in the 60th Foot; he obtained a Lieutenantancy in the same corps the 20th of April, 1793; a company on the 15th of August, 1795; and a Majority the 25th of December, 1800. He served the whole of the above periods in North America and in the West Indies until June, 1804, when he obtained leave of absence, and returned to this country. The 26th of October of the latter year, he was promoted to a Lieutenant-Colonelcy in his Regiment. In September, 1808, he embarked with his corps for Spain, under Lieutenant-General Sir David Baird, and was present in the action of Corunna. He subsequently served in the West Indies. The 4th of June, 1813, he received the brevet of Colonel in the Army; and the 12th of August, 1819, that of Major-General.

The following complimentary honours were presented to this officer after the prompt suppression of the revolting negroes in Barbadoes, in 1816:—

"Bay Plantation, 8th of August, 1816.

"Sir,—By order of the House of Assembly, in a full house, when every member was present, I have the honour of transmitting to you the unanimous and grateful thanks of the House, and to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann, for the eminent services rendered by you and them to this country, by speedily, and without waste of blood, putting a stop to the late dangerous insurrection of the slaves, which, in its commencement, threatened the destruction of the island. I cannot do justice to the high opinion which the House of Assembly entertain of your conduct, without conveying it to you in their own language; I therefore enclose copies of the votes of thanks, and request that you will be pleased to communicate the thanks of the House to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann. The sentiments expressed in these votes are not confined to the House of Assembly—as far as my observations extend, they are the sentiments of every member in the community. Having long had the honour of your acquaintance, and no stranger to your exemplary conduct at the different times that you have been stationed in this island, and being also a witness to the promptitude and zeal with which you marched against the insurgents, I beg leave to assure you, Sir, that I feel highly flattered and gratified that it has fallen to my lot to be the instrument of handing to you this testimony of the regard and good opinion of the inhabitants of this country.

(Signed)

"JOHN BECCLES,

"Speaker of the House of Assembly.

"To Colonel Codd."

"Resolved unanimously—That the thanks of this House be given to Edward Codd, Esq., Colonel in His Majesty's Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of the 2nd Battalion of the 60th Regiment of Foot, Commandant of St. Ann's Garrison, and General of the Militia of the island, for the great and important services which he rendered to this island during the late unfortunate rebellion of the slaves, for his prompt and decisive measures, his vigilant and unremitting exertions, and his judicious arrangement of the forces under his command, by which good order, tranquillity, and security were, in a short time, restored; as well as for his humane interference, whereby all unnecessary effusion of human blood was prevented. That the thanks of this House be given to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of St. Ann's Garrison, for the prompt, spirited, and efficient aid rendered to the inhabitants of this island during the late calamitous insurrection of the slaves.

"August 6th, 1816."

"St. Ann's, Barbadoes, 9th of August, 1816.

"Sir,—I have had the honor to receive your letter, dated yesterday, conveying to myself, the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of this garrison the very favorable opinion which the House of Assembly has been pleased to express of our services during the late insurrection of the slaves, and I beg you will assure the House that we sensibly feel, and gratefully acknowledge this high distinction. The House of Assembly has much overrated my own efforts on that occasion. Prompt and energetic measures seemed to me necessary, and they were adopted equally to suppress the insurgents, as to spare the effusion of the blood of those who, from delusion, had been excited to acts of rebellion by mischievous persons. The expression of your own good opinion will ever be remembered by me with gratitude, and the favourable sentiments which you assure me so generally prevail in this community cannot but, and really do, prove highly satisfactory to my feelings.

"Honourable John Beccles,

(Signed)

"EDWARD CODD, Colonel.

"Speaker of the House of Assembly."

" Barbadoes, August 14, 1816.

" Sir,—It is a matter of the highest gratification to me to be the organ of the Honourable the House of Legislative Council to convey to you the enclosed resolutions. I cannot omit this opportunity to express, in addition to the well-deserved commendation of His Majesty's Council, my individual thanks for the good advice and ready co-operation I experienced from you during the late slave insurrection, and, as an eye-witness of your personal exertions and fatigue, I have sincere pleasure in testifying that this community must ever feel grateful for your services.

(Signed)

" JOHN SPOONER,

" Colonel Codd."

" President of the Council.

" Resolved—That the thanks of the Legislative Council be presented to Edward Codd, Esq., Colonel in the Army, Lieutenant-Colonel of His Majesty's 2nd Battalion 60th Regiment, and General of the Militia, for his zealous and meritorious services in the suppression of the late slave insurrection, and for his unremitting attention to the public interest while he commanded the Militia of this Colony. Resolved—That the thanks of the Legislative Council be likewise given to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the garrison of St. Ann, for the valour, steadiness, and good discipline displayed by them during the same period and in the same cause."

" St. Ann's, Barbadoes, August 15, 1816.

" Sir,—I have been honoured with your letter, conveying to me the resolutions of the Honourable the Members of the Legislative Council of this island, on my conduct and that of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of this garrison, during the late insurrection of the slaves. It cannot but be flattering to the feelings of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates under my command on that occasion to have their conduct approved of by those who witnessed their exertions, which were rather fatiguing than dangerous; for myself I request you will convey my sincere thanks for the honour conferred upon me. It would, however, be unbecoming in me, if I did not declare, that the success which attended my measures was chiefly owing to the assistance I received on every occasion connected with the public welfare from yourself and other members of the Legislative Council, to whom I always applied with advantage in cases where their experience and local information were required; and I had ever the greatest pleasure in consulting with you, particularly when the interests of humanity required that the lives of deluded slaves should be protected from the punishments due to their crimes, into which mischievous persons had seduced them.

" EDWARD CODD, Colonel.

" His Honour John Spooner, President of the Council."

Colonel GEORGE MACKIE, C.B.

Colonel George Mackie was appointed Major in the 60th Foot on the 8th of March, 1802. He returned to England on account of his health, and in 1805 went again to the West Indies. In 1807 he came to England with the 2nd Battalion, 60th, and in February, 1808, was ordered to the West Indies to take the command of the 3rd Battalion of the 60th, of which he was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel, the 22nd December, 1808. He landed in the Bay La Temise with 700 men; marched across the Island of Martinique, and was present at the siege and surrender of Fort Dessaix. The 4th June, 1814, he obtained the brevet of Colonel. He has the honour of wearing a Medal for the attack and capture of Martinique, and is a Commander of the Order of the Bath. On leaving Martinique, the following Brigade Orders were issued:—

" Fort Royal, 24th June, 1814.

" Major-General Wale, after having three years' experience of Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie's merit as an officer, cannot omit, on the occasion of his leaving the island for England, to thank him for that uniformly steady support that the Major-General has ever received from that excellent officer. It was to Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie that the inhabitants of the town of St. Pierre were most indebted for their safety in the partial insurrection of the black population in 1811. It has been chiefly owing to his energy of character, joined to great urbanity of manners, in the execution of his measures, that the populous town of St. Pierre has been brought to that perfect state of tranquillity which it enjoys at the present moment, for which the Major-General, in his civil capacity as Governor, returns him his best thanks; and the Major-General assures Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie of his entire approbation of his conduct in the discharge of his duty as commanding the District of St. Pierre, and of the state of his garrison, both as to appearance in movements in the field, and as to general good conduct in quarters; and the Major-General can also assure Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie that in all his reports to headquarters he has invariably remarked the happy art by which he has attained these essential objects, with the least possible coercion or severity, a circumstance which cannot fail to recommend him as much to the good graces of the Commander-in-Chief, as it must to the esteem and veneration of the soldiers who have had the happiness of serving under him, and who, with every officer and civilian who has known Lieutenant-Colonel Mackie, will join with the Major-General in wishing him welfare."

"To Lieutenant-Colonel MACKIE, Commandant of the Town of Saint Pierre.

"Sir,—The inhabitants of the town of St. Pierre learn with sensible regret that the state of your health compels you to retire from the command of this garrison, which you have held with such honour to yourself and so much to public satisfaction. They are ambitious to offer you, Sir, every respectful testimony of their approbation and admiration of your conduct generally in this command, but pointedly in a period of difficulty and apparent danger to the Colony at large, when personal confidence was restored by the exemplary order and discipline of the troops, resulting from the care and unwearied vigilance of the Commandant. They do not pretend to set forth in what high degree they appreciate your services in this command; they will, however, venture to solicit you to honour them by the acceptance of a piece of plate, of the value of one thousand dollars, as a testimonial of their regard, which will be flattering to them, in the hope it may recall to your mind, in distant time, the inhabitants of a town by whom you were so much esteemed. That your voyage may be prosperous, and its view filled to the plenitude of health, is their unanimous, their most anxious desire. Having been deputed by the inhabitants of Saint Pierre to present you this address, we assure you, Sir, that we pride ourselves in the opportunity it offers us of testifying to you our personal respect and attachment.

"THUN. VILLEDEUEL.

"WILLIAM SMITH.

"JAMES MAHON.

"JOHN O'DELHOEN.

"Saint Pierre, 22nd June, 1814."

(REPLY.)

"St. Pierre, Martinique, 22nd June, 1814."

"Gentlemen,—It has ever been my wish to deserve the confidence and esteem of the inhabitants of St. Pierre, and it is with feelings of the most lively gratitude that I now find, by the address that you have just honoured me with, that my endeavours have in so far succeeded; and it will ever, I assure you, be one of the happiest events of my life. The piece of plate, which you have requested my acceptance of, I receive with the greatest pleasure, and should circumstances place me again amongst you, I trust my conduct will prove that your confidence and liberality have neither been misplaced nor forgotten. I feel much gratified by the anxious wish you express for the speedy re-establishment of my health, which a change to a Northern climate, I hope, will soon effect. To you, gentlemen, who are on this occasion the organs of this very respectable and populous town, I offer my most heartfelt thanks for the very flattering manner you have been pleased to convey their sentiments, and of which I shall ever retain a just sense.

(Signed)

"GEORGE MACKIE,

"Lieutenant-Colonel 60th Regiment, Commandant of St. Pierre."

Lieutenant-Colonel JOHN GALIFFER, C.B.

Appointed to 5th Battalion, 60th, from the York Rangers. Served in Spain and Portugal, and wounded at the battle of Talavera; also present at the battles of Nivelle, Orthes, and Toulouse, for which he received the Gold Cross. This officer had previously been in the French and Dutch services.

1823.

Colonel JOHN FORSTER FITZGERALD, C.B.

Extract from the "Times," November, 1877:—

"DEATH OF FIELD-MARSHAL FITZGERALD.—Our Paris Correspondent telegraphs that the papers there announce the death, at Tours, of Field-Marshal Sir John Fitzgerald, of the British Army, at the age of 91 years. Sir John Forster Fitzgerald, G.C.B., Colonel of the 18th Royal Irish, was the son of Edward Fitzgerald, Esq., M.P., of Carrigoran, and was born in 1786. On the 29th October, 1793, when only seven years old, he obtained a commission as Ensign in an independent Company of Foot. On the 31st January, 1794, he was promoted to a Lieutenantcy, and on the 9th May in the same year was promoted to a half-pay Captaincy in the old 79th Regiment, not the 79th Highlanders, which had been reduced in 1783. On October 31, 1800, he was brought on to full pay as Captain of the 46th Regiment. According to Hart's Army List he joined that regiment for duty in the following year, when, though only 15, he had already been a titular Captain seven years. The establishment of the 46th having been reduced in 1802, Captain Fitzgerald was again placed on half-pay, but on the 9th July, 1803, he was appointed to the new Brunswick Fencibles, and on the 25th September became Brevet Major when only 17 years old, being an instance of rapid promotion, we fancy, quite without parallel. On the 9th November, 1809, he was transferred to the 60th Royal Americans, now the 60th Rifles, and joined that corps in the Peninsula. He was present at the siege of Badajoz, and the battles of Salamanca, Vittoria, and the Pyrenees, together with many minor affairs. During part of the war he commanded a light battalion, and was at the battle of the Pyrenees in the command of a Brigade. He was taken prisoner by the French, as far as we can ascertain, at or after the battle of the Pyrenees, but subsequently exchanged. He received the Gold Cross for his services. On the 5th February, 1824, he was promoted to a Lieutenant-Colonelcy in the 20th Foot, having received the brevet of Colonel in 1819. In 1830 he became a Major-General, and in 1814 a Lieutenant-General, having in the interval commanded a Division in the Bombay Presidency. In 1854 he became full General. In 1850 he obtained the Colonelcy of the 18th Royal Irish, and in 1862 was created G.C.B. On 29th May, 1875, Sir John was appointed Field-Marshal. Sir John Fitzgerald married first, in 1835, Mary, daughter of Mr. Hazen. She died in 1848; secondly, in 1850, Jean, daughter of Hon. Donald Ogilvy. She died in 1863. He sat as M.P. for Clare in the Liberal interest from 1852-57. Died at the age of 91 at Tours."

By the order of the Minister of War, the military honours paid to French officers of his rank were rendered to his remains, and the whole of the garrison escorted the body to the grave.
